

Local Politics Matter

I Can't Understand It

Vote the Bums Out

As we continue to vent about equality, I can't understand why some people continue to walk down the same path of destruction. Daddy don't vote, Mama don't vote, children out of control. Everybody is complaining about what they don't have. I can't understand it.

ing to improve the lives of the people in their community. Maybe I could send some of the young men off the corner. Maybe they could help them make some life changing decisions, because they won't listen to me, I remind them of their mamas.

I live in East Baltimore. I've seen the same buildings boarded up for decades and no one says a word about it. Yes we were all happy about the American Brewery's renovation and the non-profit that would benefit by residing in the updated facility. But when I look over there I still see the boarded up houses, glaring in the shadows of this magnificent edifice. I can't understand it. I need to take a trip over to the brewery to talk to the executives there to find out exactly what they are do-

Local Politicians have been in office as long as I can remember. Yet, the city looks the same, at least in the neighborhoods that I am familiar with. Why isn't the money coming here? What happened to the lottery money for the schools? My guess is that they bought a few books and a couple of computers and said, be grateful for what you are getting. Be grateful, yeah right.

Local Politics Matter...I say we vote the bums out, go out and tell the world vote, vote, and vote. I can hear the non-voters now... Why, they're not going to do anything for me. That's the point, Dah.

Share Your Comments

Return to LPM

