

Local Politics Matter

Out With The Old

In With The New

Donald Trump must go. Each day that he is the president of the United States, we the people of this country and the country its self, suffer humiliation, shame and trauma. Each day, our country becomes less great, and less safe. Our democratic institutions become less democratic and America becomes less exceptional. His vulgarity, ignorance, xenophobia and misogyny will stain the country long after he vacates 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, so the sooner he vacates the White House the better for us all. We have an opportunity to hasten his exit by voting out as many of the GOP as possible in the 2018 mid term elections. You see, they must go too because they have been his enablers, his partners in crime. They are willfully assisting in the dismantling of our democratic republic in the vain hope of maintaining a grip on power.

The GOP will lose power, it may not happen tomorrow, next week or next year, but they will lose power. They can do it the easy way or the hard way. Easy would be to willingly share power with everyone in this diverse country that is America. The hard way, keep oppressing, discriminating and disparaging their fellow citizens refusing to share the power until they're overtaken by the sheer force of numbers and relegated to the back of the bus.
